Programs from Midget Introduction to Advanced
Race Instruction

The First Turn Midget Driving Experience school is designed to give the newcomer to asphalt midget racing the seat time and the one-on-one instruction needed to become successful in midget racing. Our cars are the current Hawk Midget Chassis with Ford Focus racing engines as used in the NEMA Lites racing series. The First Turn is owned and operated by NEMA championship driver and car owner Bobby Seymour of Marlboro, MA.

Bobby Seymour's Career Highlights:

- 1987 NEMA Championship Driver
- 23 NEMA Midget Wins
- 2 ARDC Midget Wins
- 1989 Hoosier Autumn Classic Winner (Plymouth, IN)
- 1999 Boston Louie Memorial Classic Winner
- Owner of USAC Silver Crown car from 1996 to 2007 with drivers Bentley Warren, Bobby Santos III, Ken Schrader, Brad Noffsinger, Dave Blaney, and Tony Stewart.
- Four years as instructor at the Richard Petty Driving Experience - the Petty stock cars, the Mercedes Benz "On Track" Experience, and the Dodge SRT Challenge.
