

2021 NEMA LITES Driver Profile:

Dylan Coutu

Fresh from completing the NEMA Lite “Rookie Development Program,” Dylan Coutu is ready to start his first full season behind the wheel of a racecar.

Having run quarter midgets for eight years, the freshman has garnered multiple feature wins in that time at a multitude of tracks throughout the East Coast.

Dylan made a select few starts in 2020 as part of the rookie program, finishing a best of 14th twice at Star Speedway.

“My top goal is to gain the respect of my competitors and show that we belong here,” said the Griswold, CT native.

“I feel I can adapt quickly to the small bullrings, but will need a little more time at the big tracks such as Oswego & Thompson, but I’m certainly ready for that challenge.”
